Marshall Meadows is an attractive Georgian mansion standing in 15 acres of beautiful mature gardens and woodland very close to Berwick upon Tweed.

Elegantly and tastefully furnished and boasting many original period features, Marshall Meadows has the atmosphere of a country home and provides a tranquil environment in which to work and to relax.

High levels of service and superb cuisine make this hotel a favourite with business and leisure travellers and the easily accessible location close to the Scottish border and the north of the Secret Kingdom of Northumbria, Marshall Meadows is an ideal venue for corporate events.

Whatever the nature of your requirement, the Conference and Banqueting Team can tailor an event to match your precise requirements and they will be on hand throughout to make sure that everything runs smoothly.

“We found Marshall Meadows a superb choice of venue. Well situated and an extremely well equipped meeting room made our event a complete success. We would particularly commend the team who were a great help - they were clearly very experienced in event management ”
